1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance and that it has not been completely solved. The author then proceeds to a detailed analysis of the problem.
 He shows that the problem can be reduced to a set of equations. These equations are then solved by the method of characteristics. The results of the calculations are then presented. It is shown that the problem is solved. The author then discusses the implications of the results. It is shown that the results are of great importance and that they have a wide range of applications. The author concludes by stating that the problem has been completely solved.

My dear Mr. Brewster
I have just received your letter of the 14th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have been very busy lately with my work and have not had time to write you more fully. I am, however, very anxious to hear from you and to hear of your success in your work. I am very truly yours,
Wm. Brewster
